Tender Conditions

1. Tenders must be lodged with the CQTBA Inc, no later than Friday 18th August, 2017.
2. Acceptance of any tender shall be at the sole discretion of the CQTBA and the highest tender shall not necessarily be the tender accepted by the Club. Reserve prices may apply to some Services.
3. In the event of your tender being accepted payment shall be made to the CQTBA within seven days of acceptance of tender on the following basis (A) Payment of a security deposit of 25% of the tender price within 7 days of the tender acceptance (failure to comply will result in the Service being awarded to another tenderer) (B) Payment of balance within 14days of a 45day Positive pregnancy test.
4. All fees such as agistment, usage fee etc charged by the stud are for the broodmare owners account
5. It is the responsibility of the broodmare owner to correctly identify the mare (accompanied by her document of description) on delivery to the stud and the stud owner shall not be responsible for any problems arising from delivery of wrong mare. It is their responsibility to confirm mare is free from any disease and in normal condition.
6. The stud shall have the right to reject any mare submitted which is considered to be unsuitable. Successful tenderers shall advise CQTBA of the mares prior to going to stud.
7. The stud and CQTBA accept no responsibility for any accident/death/disease or injury to the mare whilst on a stud property.
8. The stud is hereby authorised to engage a veterinarian surgeon at the owners expense to perform any service or treatment as the stud consider necessary and reasonable and the tenderer agrees to pay this account.
9. The tenderer shall discuss all requirements and fees directly with the stud and abide by their requests.
10. The tenderer to pay all outstanding accounts to the stud prior to departure of the mare.
